CIT Virtual Open Day

2020 has been world changing. With the bushfires at the start of the year, followed by COVID-19, nothing is quite the same. What does remain is our commitment to excellence in teaching and learning, and the importance of education has never been greater.

While the pandemic continues, we won't be holding our open day in quite the same way this year. We will be running a virtual open day event in November 2020. With online information sessions, virtual tours and Q&A's, you can find out all you need to know.

We will advise all schools of the November date once finalised and make sure to stay up-to-date with details about Open Day on our website and Facebook page.

JMC | Online Sketchnoting Seminar
10 September 2020, 4:30 pm - 6:00 pm
Online
This free online seminar will dive into the topic of visual notetaking (also known as sketchnoting) and explore why visual notes are such a powerful tool. Come along and learn some fundamental sketching skills, an understanding of how to memorably capture what you hear and learn to communicate your ideas visually using sketchnoting techniques. By drawing something to create connections, you will increase your ability to remember – perfect for those coming up to exam time!

Asbestos and White Card training workshops for schools

Industry experts have designed CIT's customised training workshops for school students to be delivered at school or CIT Bruce. The two units of competency delivered are mandatory for students to enter work sites and are required for students undertaking work experience.

- Statement of Attainment training in Construction Induction [from CPC] (White Card)
- Statement of Attainment Course in Asbestos Awareness 10675NAT

Indicative Cost: $150

Duration: 6 hour full day plus 4 hour half day

Class size: 20+ or 40 maximum

Students must be 15 years or older to attend this training.

NSW Police Force and University Certificate in Workforce Essentials Information Session to join the NSW Police force student must first come through Charles Sturt University and undertake the University Certificate in Workforce Essentials. Completion of this program will put the student on a waiting list and depending on their grades this may make them eligible to apply for the Associate Degree in Policing Practice and ultimately join the Police Force.

So, do you have a student that is interested in making a difference in the world? Charles Sturt and the NSW Police Force are hosting a free information session for students who are interested in a career as an NSW Police Officer.

On Tuesday 22nd September at 7 pm - 8.30 pm, the free Zoom webinar will discuss everything students need to know - including the University Certificate in Workforce Essentials, pathway options to become a police officer and what it's like to serve their community. Students will also have the opportunity to ask questions and to hear from Police Officers who have actually gone through the recruitment experience.

We invite your year 10, 11 and 12 students, and their parents to book a spot for this session:
