Cyclical Review Focus Groups
Under new Catholic Education Office guidelines for ongoing school improvement, the College will examine various areas of its operation each year. Input on these will be sought from all members of the community. In 2011, we are seeking feedback and parent input in the following areas and plan to run one-off focus groups with parents on each of these topics.

- Vision and Mission
- Wider Community Partnerships
- Student Achievement
- Principles for Learning and Learning Environment

Any other area not mentioned where you feel your skills could contribute to the community
